MAY QUEEN CORONATION ATTRACTS MANY WHO ENJOY SCENE OF BEAUTY

Miss Effie Graham Power Queen of May—Coronation and May Pole Dance at St. Joseph's Memorial Auditorium Sunday Night Is Seasonable Event of Week.

Every propitious circumstance seemed to have conspired to the success of Sunday evening's seasonable event, annual coronation of May Queen, presented at St. Joseph's Academy Memorial Hall, to which many attended.

Prior to this program the early part of the afternoon and evening was spent in outdoor pastime, affording pleasing diversion to the many who had come to honor the May Queen festivities and to pay tribute to the cause of raising funds to the debt fund of the hall. As a net result over $250.00 was reported.

Many ladies of the parish and friends of the academy and sisters of St. Joseph assisted, as well as the gentlemen, all combining unstinted effort for the one purpose. It was this unity of effort and co-operation from those on the outside that such splendid success and financial results were possible.

No fairer queen than Miss Effie Graham Power, of Bay St. Louis, ever graced the scene. A blonde of youthful beauty and ever charming, well did she impersonate the queen of season of flowers and spring-like joys. She was chosen by popular vote in a competitive race.

The queen chose as her escort Mr. Dave Richarme, who shared honors with her on the May throne, while the maid of honor was Miss Doris Hauser, with Mr. Ainsworth Kidd, escort.

Maid to the queen and their respective escorts follow, maids in order of their arrival from the entrance of the auditorium as they marched in single file, widely separated, through the main aisle to the stage, each in evening dress of their own selection in varied shades and contrasts. The young ladies won admiration for their manner and distinctive attractiveness, each succeeding one receiving the plaudits of a large attendance.

Miss Melodia Nix and Mr. Leon Breau, Miss Louise Carriere and Mr. Marion Verlender, Miss Yvonne Lacoste and Mr. Hugh Ryland, Miss Elise Lizana and Mr. Reynolds Sandoz, Miss Vincennes Favalora and Mr. Birch Colvert, Miss Nina Martin and Mr. Warren Aylesworth, Miss Frances Vincent and Mr. Bryant Daigle, Miss Nicolina St. Angelo and Mr. Albert Bruzeau, Miss Evelyn Nix and Mr. Leon Baquet, Miss Alma LeJeune and Mr. Salvador Ducas, Miss Elizabeth Vincent and Mr. Raoul Gonzales, Miss Theresa Linam and Mr. Cecil Lapeyronnie, Miss Alice Camors and Mr. Richard Roth, Miss Clelia Toledo and Mr. Sheldon Seuzeneau, Miss Almie Hauser and Mr. Jules Mottly, Miss Florine Mottly and Mr. John Hickman, Miss Lucille Fontana and Mr. John Macauley.

Flower girls, of diminutive age and size, preceded the single line of maid. Little tots in colorful dress, each carrying old-fashioned bouquets. Little Misses Betty Yates, Evabelle Prague, Jeanne Arceneaux, Udell Favre, Faye Roy, Tottie Mauffray, Mary Francis Scaife, Betty Lee Mitchell and Libby Dollack formed the personae of this bevy of sweet tots.

Divertissement.

For the edification and general entertainment of the queen and her court a Maypole dance was presented, each of the youthful dancers in dresses of crepe paper as colorful as the May flowers of the field. This dance was most gracefully performed as a result of the careful and successful training of Mrs. A. K. Roy.

The graceful dancers were: Helene Kerosien, Evabelle Prague, Gloria Stockton, Dot Milan, Pat Kane, Bertha Lafontaine, Mary Violet Arceneaux, Dot Roy, Marie Alice Tudury, Helen Arnaud, Lucille Ryan, Rosemary Weidner, Rita Bopp, Angeline Bourgoin.

Miss Peo Harding, accomplished young Miss of Pass Christian, gave two dance numbers in costume, the first in aerobatic form and the other a "tap" dance in the tri-color garb of Uncle Sam, appropriate to the Washington bi-centennial season. Young Miss Harding is graceful and talented and her numbers won instant favor.

Miss Ruth Ward, local celebrity, an artist in dance and character song, evoked tremendous applause and her number meant another in encore to this outward form of approval. Miss Ward is always a favorite.

SHERIFF HOLDS UP TECHE BUS

With Writ of Execution For Unpaid Court Costs—Sheriff Kellar Collects.

Sheriff T. Ed Kellar held up a bus of the Teche Transfer Company in the city of Bay St. Louis Monday morning at 10:20 o'clock, but not in the spectacular and bravado way one reads of in western adventure.

Sheriff Kellar served a writ of execution for court costs on the driver of the bus, as agent for the Teche Company, wherein supreme court costs and accrued damages were involved in the total sum of $178.00. The driver at once telephoned to Representative Wm. A. Porteous, of Teche Co., with headquarters at New Orleans, who, in turn, wired the money. After which the bus was allowed to continue its way Mobile bound.

Last Thursday Sheriff Kellar served a similar paper, emanating from the office of Clerk of the Courts A. G. Favre, wherein $70.00 was sought. The driver agent, as the one above did, telephoned in what had happened and presently the money was wired to the sheriff.

These court costs are a result of a recent damage suit styled James Brittingham, Jr., administrator, estate of William A. Wade versus Teche Transfer Company and James Wade Teche Lines.

It was remembered William A. Wade lost his car, which he was driving at the time of the accident, at the head of Washington street.

A suit for damages in amount of $60,000 followed and was finally compromised for a sum under ten thousand dollars.

The case was appealed to the supreme court and it was for costs both county and state court that costs and damages were sought for by the sheriff.

SCHUBERT CLUB ELECTS

Mrs. W. W. Stockstill Elected To Head Local Music Club For Coming Year

The Schubert Music Club of Bay St. Louis held its last business meeting of the 1931-32 year at its regular meeting place, the Music Room at St. Joseph Academy, on Wednesday.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. W. W. Stockstill, president; Miss Margaret Green, vice president and Mrs. L. S. Elliott, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Marie Louise Renaud was appointed publicity chairman and other committees for the new year were named as follows: Program Committee, Miss Margaret Green, chairman; Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Miss Marie Louise Renaud; Membership Committee, Mrs. A. K. Roy, chairman; Mrs. E. C. Carriere, Mrs. H. C. Glover.

Plans were discussed for the next year and were received enthusiastically by the club members. Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Mississippi Vice-President of the National Federation of Music Clubs and also chairman of the International Relations Committee gave an interesting and instructive report on federation work. The club is planning a social get-together before dispersing for the summer and every one is looking forward to a most successful and enjoyable year to begin in September.

Bro. Peter Manifesting Personal Interest in Forthcoming State Event, June 24-27.

Applications for the Laymen's Retreat to be held at St. Stanislaus College, June 24 to 27, were mailed out the early part of the week by Chairman Charles A. Gordon, and each mail brings back requests for reservations.

From the interest stimulated this year, indications are that the attendance this season will far surpass the number of 51 that attended formerly.

Those who attend the retreat gain a wonderful spiritual benefit, and the two days spent at the college takes them away from the daily grind and turmoil of business and is a physical recreation for them. So by attending the retreat you will profit spiritually and physically.

Brother Peter, president of St. Stanislaus College, is heart and soul in the retreat movement and personally sees to it that those who attend are given every physical comfort at his command.

CAMP STANISLAUS OPENS JUNE 17 TO RUN SIX WEEKS

Brother Peter, President will Direct Activities For Boys 8 to 17 Years Old.

Boys who love water sports and lamubber athletes will both find ample opportunity to indulge in their favorite recreations at Camp Stanislaus.

The brothers of St. Stanislaus College at Bay St. Louis June 17 to July 28.

Brother Peter of St. Stanislaus College will be in charge of the camp, which will be open to boys 8 to 17 years of age. All activities, especially the swimming periods, will be supervised by instructors. The sports provided will include swimming, boating, football instruction, tennis, indoor baseball and other games.

A similar camp was conducted by the brothers of St. Stanislaus college in 1931 for three weeks. The camping period has been doubled this year in order to provide a longer outing and corresponding greater benefit for the boys who take part.

Bro. Peter stated that he had every belief, and present indications sustained that thought, that the number attending his summer would far exceed that of last season. Last year the announcement was made after many boys were prepared to go elsewhere and who would rather had spent their vacation on the Gulf Coast and swimming in the gulf waters.

Advantages offered by St. Stanislaus college, Bay St. Louis and with Brother Peter directing, is all sufficient for the success of Camp Stanislaus.

Woman's Missionary Society Meeting Held Wednesday Afternoon

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church was held in the sun-parlor of the Weston Hotel, Tuesday, May 17, with Mrs. W. A. McDonald serving as hostess.

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. C. Buckley. After which the program for the month was presented.

The topic for discussion was "Prohibition." The Bible lesson was presented by Mrs. J. B. Buckley, her theme being, "The Loyalty of Jesus." "His loyalty," said Mrs. Buckley was not based upon other people's thinking, but upon the convictions of his own character. She urged that "we have this same sort of resolution and undiscouraged devotion to our convictions."

The paper on "Prohibition" was filled with thought-provoking material. After adjournment, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

GULF COAST DISTRICT ATTORNEY ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

W. M. (BILL) COLMER

WRIGHT IS ROTARY SPEAKER

Tells Bay St. Louis Business Men of Cycles of Depression—Always Follow War.

Despite inclement weather of Wednesday there was a nearly 100 per cent meeting of Bay St. Louis Rotary, with a number of guests present. And the spirit of the meeting was quite in contrast with the "blue" weather that prevailed without.

The colorful decorations of the Oriole dining room set further aglow with the various strings of lighted Japanese lanterns added to the scene and general atmosphere.

An invitation from President Richard G. Cox to Rotarians and their ladies to the annual May festival was read to be held on the campus of Gulf Park College on Thursday evening of next week.

The chair expressed the official sympathy of the Bay Rotary Club to its secretary, Arthur A. Scaife, on the recent occasion of the visitation of sorrow to the parental roof. Judge Fred A. Wright, of Bay St. Louis, was the honor guest of the club and the speaker as well. Well versed and a former member of the Mississippi legislature and a speaker of no mean ability, he followed his preliminary remarks with a recall from the ages of history, pointing to the financial depression following the civil war, then later another preceded by the Spanish-American war and the present subsequent to the world-wide conflict. He said these things followed in the cycle of things and time and were bound to revolve and again return that normalcy we are all looking for longingly as we seemingly languish almost hopelessly.

His illustration was well and the conclusions logical. He then delivered the challenge of the Biloxi Rotary Club for a golf championship test of the various clubs along the coast, and, according to the appointment of G. C. McDonald as chairman followed, Mr. McDonald to select his own committee-men.

Dr. Miller, of the Commonwealth foundation, with headquarters at Jackson and Mr. J. R. Schaff, Bay St. Louis merchant, were among the guests.

Speaker for Next Week
Attorney Walter J. Gex, Jr., is the program speaker and honor guest of the club for next week.

BENEFIT POSTPONED.

Owing to bad weather, the benefit card party to have been given on Thursday of this week by the band of Cheerful Givers, at St. Joseph Gym, is postponed to next Monday afternoon, at the same place and usual hour. The management states the postponement was imperative because of the inclemency of the weather. Public invited.

W. M. COLMER WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS FROM COAST DIST.

Coast District Attorney Formally Announces As Candidate for Congress From Sixth District

The formal announcement of the candidacy of Honorable William Meyers Colmer of Pascagoula for representative in the United States Congress from the Sixth Mississippi District appears in the proper column of this issue of this paper. Mr. Colmer's candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic voters, the party primaries to be held this year, and he earnestly solicits the support of the people and a study of his unusual qualifications for the important office.

There having been some doubt as to the counties that would be included in the Sixth District by legislative redistricting, Mr. Colmer's announcement has been generally known for some time that he would be a candidate for Congress. To his more intimate friends the ambition has long been apparent, for this splendid Mississippi has for years been studying and preparing himself for the day when he could offer his services to the people with the assurance that he possessed the necessary qualifications in training, in character, and in understanding of the needs of his district.

Record of Achievement.

Now serving his second term as district attorney of the Second Judicial District, Mr. Colmer has a splendid record of achievement, although he is scarcely over forty years of age. His work as public prosecutor in the five counties which comprise the Second District, has been notable, and has stamped him as a man of courage and one who has a sympathetic understanding of his fellow-men. Fully conscious of his duties, he has coped with numerous difficult situations in such a manner as to convince careful students that he is fully capable of successfully meeting any higher task that may be assigned to him.

While a legal resident of Pascagoula and an official with duties in five counties, Mr. Colmer, who is widely known as "Bill," is a typical product of the Sixth Congressional District, and his family long has been identified with the commercial, social and political life of South Mississippi. He has taught school in several of the counties, practiced law in most of them, assisted in civic and business endeavors in others, and in one he found romance. Redheaded, companionable and a lover of his fellow-man, "Bill" Colmer has little outward appearance of the splendidly educated, thoroughly trained and efficient public servant he has proven himself to be.

Native of "Piney Woods."
Mr. Colmer was born in the interior of Jackson county forty-one years ago. His parents were of that rugged type who came to the piney woods to find their fortunes in the

BAY ST. LOUIS LOSES BY DEATH WELL-KNOWN AND PUBLIC-SPIRITED CITIZEN

Andrea Scaife, Aged 56, Claimed by Death Shortly After Midnight Saturday—Funeral Sunday One of Largest In History of City.

K. C. MEET APPOINTS DELEGATES

To State Convention to be Held at Vicksburg, May 22—Resolutions of Respect Adopted.

The regular meeting of the Pere Le Duc Council No. 1522 Knights of Columbus was held Sunday night, May 15th, at their hall on Main street. Matters of importance were discussed.

Grand Knight Charles A. Gordon and Past Grand Knight Joseph O. Mauffray, were elected delegates to the State convention to be held at Vicksburg on May 22nd, and 23. John J. B. Bordages and Alden Mauffray were elected alternates.

The following resolutions were passed on the death of Mr. Andrea Scaife, who was a member of this council for many years:

"Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His Omnipotence, to remove from our midst our devoted and well beloved Brother Andrea Scaife, and Whereas we Knights of Columbus in Council assembled, deeply deplore the loss of our Brother, therefore be it resolved, that we convey to the family of our departed Brother, our sincere condolence in their bereavement, and be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased Brother."

Biloxi Council Knights of Columbus, elected Grand Knight John O'Keefe and Tom McCaleb as delegates to the state convention to be held in Vicksburg, May 22 and 23, with John Clark and Charles Lanus as alternates. The local council will also have representation at the golden jubilee and initiation of the Mobile council to be held Sunday, May 24. The Biloxi drum and bugle corps will also make the trip and parade with the Mobile Knights. Albert Ragusin was elected general chairman of the committee to arrange for the annual bazaar to be held in July.

POPPY DAY PROGRAM FRIDAY, 27

American Legion Auxiliary Exercises at Bay High—Hon. Carl Marshall Speaker

The American Legion Auxiliary of Bay St. Louis is planning a "Poppy Day" program, to be given Friday, Night, May 27, in the High School auditorium.

Mrs. Laurent Dickson, president of the Auxiliary, is directing the program which promises to be a very interesting and entertaining one. Mrs. Dickson and her committee have selected some of the best talent on the Coast. Mr. Carl Marshall will be the speaker of the evening.

This program is free and the public is cordially invited.

On Saturday, May 28, the women of the American Legion Auxiliary working as volunteers, will offer to the people of Bay St. Louis paper poppies made by disabled World War veterans in replica of the wild poppies which bloomed on the battle fields of France and Belgium. The poppy is recognized throughout the world as the symbol of World War sacrifice. All contributions made for the flowers are expended for the welfare of the living victims of the war.

Wearing the poppy performs the dual purpose of paying tribute to the dead and contributing to the welfare of the living.

ELEVEN TABLES OF BRIDGE

King's Daughters benefit card party Thursday morning, followed by a dinner, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Leonard, was quite a success, with eleven tables of bridge.

This community was shocked Saturday morning when it was learned that Andrea Scaife had died shortly after mid-night that morning at his home on Old Spanish Trail, city suburbs.

Mr. Scaife had spent the evening at the home of Rev. A. J. Gmelch, his pastor, in social pastime with other friends, as was a custom, apparently feeling as well as ordinarily. Reaching home, it is said, he further played cards by indulging in two games of solitaire, after which he retired. Soon, however, he was taken ill and two physicians were at his bedside. It was evident he had suffered a heart attack and finally passed away, as peacefully as he had lived.

Mr. Scaife had been a most devout Catholic all his life, practicing his religion in his every day pursuit, an exemplary man, and it was seemingly fitting that he should pass away as beautifully as he had lived—passive and submissive to his Maker.

He was born in DelMonte, Mazzagno, Italy, but moved to the United States when he was 14 years old. He was engaged in the wholesale building material business but devoted much of his time to the development of a large pecan grove and truck farm here.

He was married thirty-six years ago, at Donaldsonville, La., a year after which he moved to Bay St. Louis and resided here continuously ever since. From the time he came here to the time of his death, Mr. Scaife was actively engaged in business enterprise and, was associated with the material, as well as the moral, upbuilding of the community. He was identified with many things, all for building and betterment. Bay St. Louis has never had a more constructive citizen.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, John Scaife and Arthur Scaife; seven daughters, Mrs. Leo Murtagh, Mrs. Charles E. Carter, Misses Amelia, Frances, Catherine, Josie and Margaret Scaife, and seven grandchildren. The younger son, John Scaife, is a member of the Tulane university football team, and the older son, Arthur A. Scaife, is assistant cashier of the Hancock County bank and secretary of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club.

Also survived by two brothers, Joseph G. Scaife and Antonio Scaife of Bay St. Louis, and a sister, Mrs. Rosalie Loiacano of Beaumont, Texas.

His daughter, Miss Amelia, who is professionally engaged in hospital work for the government, reached here the next morning from Alexandria, La., where she is stationed.

In addition to his association with many organized enterprises, he was a charter member of Pere Le Duc Council, Knights of Columbus, Italian Society of the Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of the Gulf Ushers' Society and Bay Benevolent Association.

The funeral, which took place Sunday forenoon, was the largest seen in Bay St. Louis. There was a general outpouring of people from all parts of the city and county, from away. Floral offerings were numerous and when the family tomb in St. Mary's Cemetery had been sealed and the body laid away within the sacred precincts of the city of the dead, the place was decked with flowers of unusual beauty. It was a manifestation of love and esteem and as well as sympathy for the family who so deeply feel the loss of a devoted husband and loving father.

Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, pastor of the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, officiated at the ceremony at the house, church and cemetery as well. The pastor and the deceased had been personal friends of long standing and it was a sad duty for the surviving one.

R. W. Taylor School Pageant and Operetta Postponed to Monday

Owing to continued inclement weather, Mrs. W. W. Stockstill, principal R. W. Taylor Ward School, announces the operetta and pageant, marking closing of the school for the summer, and to have taken place this week, is postponed to next Monday night, May 23, at Taylor school grounds. This particular program will exceed all former entertainments, it is stated.

TAX-PAYERS' LEAGUES.

TAX-PAYERS' LEAGUES are formed over the State and country and it is certain those entrusted with the administration of public affairs and spending of public funds welcome any constructive assistance that may be rendered. Where these leagues are not organized for political purposes, and we do not think that is the intent, such leagues can serve to advantage and their assistance, in proper form and not in over officiousness, serve to good stead. Even the moral effect of a league is significant.

But such organizations must not forget that each province of government has its legitimate overhead and obligations to meet and regardless of stressed conditions they must be met, at any cost, even at a seemingly excessive assessment and taxation.

Tax-payers' leagues are welcome and no right-thinking man or woman would for a moment question the aims and objects of such organizations.

DEATH TAKES BABY LINDBERGH.

THE discovery of the body of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., near the estate of his famous father, confirms a fear that has been in the minds of many people for some weeks.

While hope of his return had been general for several weeks following the kidnapping, it was hard to sustain as the weeks rolled into months. There is little use in uttering out condemnation of the soulless perpetrators of the crime. The tragedy of death and the grief of sorrowing parents make futile any idle words that could, at best, only faintly express the world's horror at such dastardly brutality.

Seldom has any single event so stirred the civilized world, which today joins in the hope that the inhuman wretches will be caught and punished to the full extent of the laws of the land.

Let us not dwell upon the fate of the little boy—such thoughts make one yearn for refined tortures to be inflicted upon the evil-doers who stooped to the most barbaric crime of the age.

FOR BAY-WAVELAND OYSTER REEFS.

AT the May meeting of the Mississippi State Seafood Commission, eighty thousand barrels of oyster shells were ordered distributed over the bottom of the oyster reefs to assist the work of augmenting natural propagation.

Commissioner R. N. Blaize, of Bay St. Louis, procured sixty thousand barrels of the shells ordered spread for the reefs of Bay-Waveland and the waters immediately adjacent, getting the lion's share for this section.

It is found the reefs of this western end of the Coast are more prolific and susceptible to attention, thus it is found results for the oyster industry will follow quicker and more abundantly.

FORD'S FARM-FACTORY PLAN.

HENRY FORD is advocating that all people raise a part of their subsistence, believing that a mixture of industrial and agricultural employment will provide for the success of the people.

The auto maker conceives of large industries eventually broken up into small units and distributed into rural areas, so that men can be tillers of the soil or factory workers as occasion requires or opportunity affords.

It is very easy, perhaps, for industrial workers to begin growing food for themselves, but it is somewhat more difficult to carry industrial employment to the mass of people now engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Congressman J. E. Rankin from Mississippi, says "Franklin D. Roosevelt is the greatest living Democrat, which means the greatest living American, in public life today." on the occasion of his plea for instructed delegates to the convention.

Pass Christian is to be congratulated on the success of its two-day flower show, which occupied Saturday and Sunday, at the Miramar hotel, and to which visitors from all parts of the Gulf Coast assembled and viewed the cut flowers and rare plants from gardens of that section, under the auspices of the Pass Christian Garden Club.

Dr. Richard G. Cox, president Gulf Park College, will deliver the address to the graduating class, Pass Christian High School, to be held this Friday evening. Dr. Cox is a most engaging speaker and the Pass school has well triumphed in the selection. Graduates are Wallace Ford, valedictorian; James Smith, George DeMetz, James Dubuison, Katherine Dedeaux, Irma Telhiard, and Wilda Gavagine.

Governor Mike Conner suggests that if the State Bond Commission wants to issue small denomination "baby bonds" to take up deficit warrants, they should bear a large picture of his predecessor, Theo. G. Bilbo. "He is responsible for this financial mess anyway," Conner is quoted as saying by the daily press. Such a remark is not only uncalled for but is undignified and petty. If the remark is intended to be facetious, even then it falls far from its mark. Such remarks sound more like Bilbo when he was governor.

BAY ST. LOUIS LOSES VALUED CITIZEN.

PASSING away of Andrea Scaffide early Saturday morning and whose large funeral Sunday forenoon was an outward evidence of popularity and esteem as well as a marked tribute of worth to the community in which he had lived the past thirty-five years, is noted by The Sea Coast Echo with that regret born of that sentiment when a genuine loss is sustained by both city and citizens.

Because of a malady of the heart, of recent times, Mr. Scaffide had in a sense retired from active business, a line in which he was pioneer and had built up to remunerative proportions, but, like the good citizen, he was essentially a home lover, a man of family and devoted much of his time the past couple of years or more to his country estate and well-known pecan orchard. Here he lived in the very bosom of his loved ones and the continued endearment of the community, for which he had through the period of a generation accomplished so much.

Local church and educational institutions shared liberally of his time and support; every endeavor of agricultural pursuit, whether proven successful or in experimental stage, received both his endorsement and attention. A builder, ever of a constructive inclination it was his intention to build from the soil, to produce and to provide a means of better livelihood for the masses. It was well demonstrated that he was a leader and doer. No crop for this section was ever suggested that he was not the first to do and show the way.

He was one of the charter members of the Knights of Columbus, Society of the Immaculate Conception, Bay Benevolent Association, etc. A Parishioner of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, he was ever a leader and worker, and it is singularly interesting and in a sense beautifully fitting that he had spent the hours of his last evening in the social atmosphere of his pastor at the latter's home and then later at his own home, where he peacefully passed away.

He was a man without prejudice, bore malice toward none. Of unquestioned integrity, he was noted for that character which had won for him the respect and esteem of the entire community.

Truly, in the passing away of this splendid character, both city and citizens sustain a loss. There has never been a character more willing to do, to contribute from his means and to urge forward every element for the betterment of the community.

The Echo can pay no citizen greater and more sincere tribute.

STATE FUNDS TO REBUILD GULFPORT DOCKS.

A BILL providing approximately $40,000 annually in state aid to the city of Gulfport for replacement of wharves destroyed by fire and for general expansion of the port's dockage facilities, while this is written awaits executive approval after passing the House, its only three dissenting votes, the Senate already passing the bill where it originated by Senator Oscar Bond, of Wiggins.

The measure authorizes retention by Harrison county of two mills of the state ad valorem tax against which the city of Gulfport may issue $1,000,000 worth of bonds for the work. It is estimated the two mills will yield $30,000 biennially.

Under leadership of Representatives Wadlington and Smith of Harrison, the bill, which previously had received Senate approval, whipped through the house with no opposition.

It was called up by Chairman Lawrence T. Kennedy of the appropriations committee, who urged its passage, asserting that the state in no wise would be obliged for the bonds issued by the city of Gulfport.

Alabama built the Mobile docks, Louisiana built the New Orleans docks and since Gulfport is the major port of Mississippi why not Mississippi build or sponsor, as the bill provides, building of the docks at Gulfport.

Bonds in the amount of one million dollars is proposed for the defraying of the cost of building Gulfport docks. The entire Mississippi Coast will benefit therefrom and the news that the destroyed property will be replaced and on a larger and modern scale is received with satisfaction.

Gulfport is destined to become a great city of 50,000, at least.

THE ICY VOICE FROM A "FROST"

REFLECTING in a general aspect that the present administration is a "frost" with distressed conditions continuing more acutely, and with remedy neither administered nor at hand, the statement given out Saturday at Washington by Senator Garner (Texas) in his weekly press conference assailed President Hoover for "Issuing so many statements he keeps the people uncertain about the future."

The Speaker, who has summed the president pretty accurately, said:

"The President's statements have done more in the last six months to freeze the confidence of the American people than all other forces put together. About the time they begin to get encouraged, he issues another double barreled statement and gets them unsettled again."

"If he were to refuse to issue a statement for 30 days I would guarantee things would thaw out."

These "contrary" statements, Garner said, "in my opinion have made the people lose confidence in not only his judgment but his patriotism except for a selfish standpoint."

Asked if he thought the President was "campaigning" Garner replied:

"The statements at least indicate that he wants to keep his name before the people."

"He has the idea of propaganda so strongly in his mind that he can't even let the Department of Justice give out a statement that it is going to help without signing it himself," Garner asserted. "He should never have issued the statement yesterday about the Lindbergh case. No President should."

Surely the President has been a frost and his voice icy, as the Speaker says, freezing the confidence of the American people with his numerous statements, meddling in this and that, whether of direct concern or not.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

A Review of the News of Last Week's Echo.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 17.—Mid-May! The great outdoors teems with life, and other growing season is well under way. The seedlings of a few short weeks ago have taken the shape of sturdy plants. Their roots dip deep into the earth for food; their leaves reach aloft for drink. In them the observer sees Nature's promise of food and clothing for the race during the year to come.

And Sunday will bring to Bay St. Louis its annual May festival, a celebration following a fine custom of the past which has endured. The feast as we know it, with its Maypole, its dance, and its beautiful Queen of the May, is that of the ancients who gathered in green meadows to welcome Spring. They are probably in some doubts about the reality of the season up until then; but their misgivings passed when they saw the flowers of May, so they celebrated with joyous abandon. Happy is the modern who can fling his cares and worries into the fire of Spring and revel in the spirits of May time, even for a day.

Fortunate for Mr. and Mrs. Kohler. Fate has placed them in enviable surroundings. According to the Echo, they spend many hours among flowers of such beauty that they are prized by all who view them. It's a far cry, (rather a plaintive one too) from the four walls of an office high up in a steel skyscraper to the riot of color in the sunlight gardens of Bay St. Louis. My thanks to those lovers of the beautiful who have brought into being such gardens, and to the Echo which has brought to me a vision of them.

This is commencement week, according to the program published in last week's paper. That's news of students about to be released for a summer out of doors. It's an announcement of a growing season too. The future will tell whether the seeds fell on fertile or barren soil. The teacher is a sower whose crop is reaped by another. School people have had their troubles too, as well as the men who sow their seeds in the warm earth. The past year has been hard on schools; the coming one promises little, if any relief. Somewhere there is a lack of wisdom, so difficulties obstruct the paths of teachers, farmers, and everyone else. 'Twill be a wise man indeed who corrects that condition.

One could hardly count reasons why the guests enjoyed themselves so well at the monthly card party to be given by the Cheerful Givers Club on May 19th. Cards are a great modern pastime, that's just as popular indoors or out. Guests can arrive in fur coats, or in palm beaches and triple sheers, their eyes are sparkling with anticipation. The games may be played beside a roaring fire or on a breezy veranda, with the same all absorbing interest, that is up to the point where a saucy zephyr lifts your ace of trump off the table before you've taken a trick with it.

For shopping efforts this is perhaps the most favorable season of the year. Stores are not crowded as they are later on, and attendants have time to give the wants of customers extra attention. No doubt many are aware of this and spend some time shopping with the progressive merchants of Bay St. Louis. Others are coming to Bay St. Louis to shop this summer, from still greater distances. And fewer of the people of the community will seek other places to trade, if the merchants continue their program of advertising the benefits gained by buying in their town.

"It can't be done" is an expression with which many a worthy project is dismissed. But as the editorial in last week's Echo points out, the removal of the old lighthouse vessel wreck was accomplished despite the oft repeated allusion to its possibility. The history of the world is a record of things some folks said couldn't be done. But when persistent and intelligent people so decided the things were done, otherwise history would make no note of them.

As the nation was about to be stunned by a tragedy in a noted family Bay St. Louis had already bowed its head in respect for its own brave young father who gave his life in an attempt to save that of his son. The survivors of Horace and Jack Whitfield suffer from the effects of a tragedy which while not so shocking as some, is none the less exceedingly sad. Permit me to join the Echo and all Bay St. Louis in expressing my sympathy for them in their bereavement.

I DO NOT LIKE TO PRAY ALOUD.

I do not like to pray aloud
With men and women in a crowd.
To me the Lord has eager ears
And always listens, always hears.

I sometimes wonder, when we kneel,
If God in heaven does not feel
That half the spoken prayers that rise
Are merely meant to advertise.

It seems to me, I may be wrong,
That, when we wrestle loud and long
With Love that yearns to grant and give,
It is a burning lie we live.

When I desire to have a word
Alone with God, I can be heard
Without a single uttered phrase,
If my own heart within me prays.

My Father always understands.
He comes with blessings in His hands.
With loving wisdom, He bestows
The best for me, because He knows.

I choose to come without a word,
To come with faith I shall be heard.
With men and women in a crowd,
I do not like to pray aloud.

He had tramped the streets of many cities for six months, so his story went, but nowhere could he find work. His food came from garbage cans, his bed in some old places indeed. Then he bought a toy water pistol.

new lumbering empire, but their ambitions were never fully realized. As a lad, young Bill attended the common schools in Moss Point and in Stone county, and later in Gulfport assisting in obtaining his education by working as janitor in one of the ward schools. Money was not plentiful in the Colmer family in those days, but the aspiring youth managed to enter Millsaps College, dropping out during his sophomore year to recoup his finances as principal of the D'Lo, Simpson county, high school. Returning to Millsaps, "Bill" became hallmaster at the preparatory school and pursued his collegiate studies. He further helped himself by writing for jackson newspapers, and found time to become a leader in campus activities. It was during this period that the piney-woods fourth won oratorical honors for his school and medals for himself.

From 1914 to 1917 Mr. Colmer was superintendent of the Lumberton, Miss., schools, and studied law in the late afternoon and at night. It was this burning of midnight oil over well-thumbed law books that finally brought young Colmer before D. M. Russell, present chancellor of the Coast District, but at that time presiding judge of the chancery district centered around Purvis. Then Colmer was admitted to the bar.

Is World War Veteran

Having served as a soldier in the World War and receiving his discharge at Camp Shelby, Mr. Colmer went to Pascagoula and began the practice of law. This has been his home ever since and he and his charming wife, whom he had married in Lumberton, have three sturdy sons.

His ability soon won recognition, resulting in his election to the office of county attorney in 1919. This place he held until 1927, when he was elected district attorney, and in 1931 was selected without opposition after he had built up a reputation as one of the leading trial lawyers of the state.

A Community Leader.

Successful as a lawyer and building up a lucrative practice, Mr. Colmer has devoted himself earnestly to his public duties. He has participated in the community and business activities of South Mississippi and has made an intimate study of the needs of the people and of the services rendered by the federal government.

Mr. Colmer has been actively identified with ex-service men's organizations, being a member of and past commander of the Jackson County Post of the American Legion. He has given unselfishly of his time and means toward helping needy ex-service men in adjusting claims against the government, working both through the Legion and the Red Cross; the latter organization having his whole-hearted sympathy.

Mr. Colmer is an officer in the Methodist Church, having been a life-long member. He also is a member of the Masonic Lodge, the B. E. O. Elks, the Woodmen of the World and the Pi Kappa fraternity. He is a past president of the Rotary Club; member of his local chamber of commerce, assisting in its organization, and in any other ways has participated in and contributed to movements calculated to help his state and his community.

Throughout his varied activities as a student, a soldier, a citizen and a public official, Mr. Colmer has nurtured an ambition to serve in the national congress, and his studies and his training have been to prepare him for that work. He is a thorough believer in the rights of the people, and during these troublous times men of his unquestioned character and integrity, practical experience, industry, and temperament are sorely needed in public offices.

When he takes the stump Mr. Colmer will give his views on national issues, but in the meantime, this paper calls attention of the voters to his candidacy and asks careful consideration of his qualifications to represent the people in the national lawmaking body.

RAMBLINGS.

The minstrel was a wow! We'll say it was. "Dad" Dees I found out had his reason for not wishing to attend the performance—but he must not take it out on the "wise-cracking" hat was their right. The gentle easing down of the songsters on the left of the stage was not intended Clarice, that was merely the non-performance of an amateur job—a fellow must know more than just how to drive a nail. One cute little fellow wanted plenty of rouge on his face to make sure that some one would see him. One little auburn-haired lady was entranced by the crooning of—well, what do you think I am, I ain't "aperyonnieing."

Those "Dukes" were swell—I don't mean that they were swell—but really they or rather some of them most self-conscious, some didn't know where to put their feet. Kind of looks as if King Dedeaux is coming back strong—if you get what I mean. We were amazed at Mr. Ray Loch refusing, but really he has his reasons, he won't tell, but we can guess—he is bashful, don't tell any one. He is as fond of applause as Joe Palooka—I didn't say he reminded me of Joe; poor Joe has too much sense. Hermie Andrade is still looking for the crisp course. He thinks it is a cross-word puzzle. Sad when he cannot see something under his nose.

SODALITY.

Officers for the next session were elected at the last meeting the following were the lucky boys: President Curtis Matherne; Vice President Geo. Weatherford; Secretary Donald Roth. The others will be named in September.

At a meeting held at Long Beach of the Gulf Coast Union of Sodality, Monday night the following officers were elected for the coming year: President Curtis Matherne, St. Stanislaus; Miss Evelyn Nix, St. Joseph Academy, vice-president; Recording secretary, George Weatherford, St. Stanislaus; corresponding secretary, Miss Lydia Ragusin, Biloxi; treasurer, Miss Inez Dubulsson, Long Beach.

The May Festival and Crowning of the Blessed Virgin's statue will take place at Pass Christian, Sunday May 22nd at 4 P. M. Solemn Benediction will be given at an out-door altar which will be erected on the school grounds.

Sodalities from all schools and parishes along the Coast will be represented and will march in the procession that is to take place immediately before the crowning and the reading of the Act of Consecration.

SPORTS.

Last Sunday the Stanislaus Track team added another team to their number of victories with a win over St. Aloysius by a score of 63 to 28.

The Rock-A-Chaws captured every event save four, the discus, twenty, hundred yard dash, and the broad-jump. Aloysius also came through to win the relay. Eddie Daigle, star Aloysius sprinter, won both dashes and came through with the discus to beat Texas Linam. With the first event Richarme won the high hurdles and Verlander ran second. The low hurdles were won by Kidd with Richarme second. Ducasa, star of the middle distances, easily walked away with the quarter mile and the half-mile. Andrade won the mile in a close finish with Donald Roth finishing third. Texas Linam easily won the shot put with some 49 ft. 9½ inches throw.

One of the features of the evening was the two twenty dash with Ducasa running against Daigle, of Aloysius. Ducasa was already tired from the half mile and quarter-mile, but managed to put on a good showing and only finished four or five yards behind the great Daigle. Nick Baquet won the pole vault with Gerchow coming second, and Verlander had no trouble in winning the high jump.

Friday there is to be a meet with McComb High school. McComb is a member of the Big Eight and it is rumored to have some pretty good men in their line-up. This is the last opportunity of seeing the 1932 track team in action, and since it is composed principally of members of this year's class, many will never again compete in any sports at Stanislaus. Let's see if we can't have a little attendance this time to cheer for the trackmen. Both Ducasa and Linam are to compete in the A. A. U. events early next month. If they win places they will be assured of places on the American Olympic team.

Valena C. Jones Parent-Teacher Association Notes

The P. T. A. of Valena C. Jones School held its regular meeting on Thursday, May 12, at 7:30 P. M. This meeting was well attended.

During the school year the club has done its bit to help. It purchased a basket-ball, some text books, stove paint, eggs for the Easter egg hunt, and paid to have the piano tuned. The club also fostered the May Day Health Program. It hopes to do bigger and better things during the next school year and asks the hearty cooperation of all the patrons and friends. After the meeting the following program was rendered:

A Reading on Child Guidance—

(Angelo Patri), Mrs. J. H. Pollard.

A Vocal Solo—Mrs. Grace Pallude.

Accompanied by Miss H. Holmes.

Address—Mrs. C. C. Clark.

Mrs. Clark's address was timely and very much appreciated.

The things of which she spoke were the very ones needed.

She explained the meaning and purpose of the P. T. A. and gave specific examples of the ways in which this club can foster Child Welfare.

She told of the Summer Round-up, one of our activities also.

The club takes this means of again 'publicly' thanking Mrs. Clark and looks forward to another such helpful address.

Due notice of the next meeting will be given at which the financial report of the closing concerts will be read.

L. O. Crosby Agrees

To Run Again For

Mayor of Poyune

The Poyune-Item in announcing the candidacy of L. O. Crosby, former Brookhaven citizen and prominent lumberman, for the office of mayor, has the following to say:

Mr. Crosby is now finishing his first term as mayor. During his administration, no ambitious programs have been neglected. At his recommendation a drainage system has been initiated and this will no doubt be carried to a conclusion before another term expires.

The city treasury is in excellent condition. With the transfer of funds, it has been said that the city government can be financed another year without a tax levy.

Last year the levy was reduced from 34 mills to 18 3/4 mills. Mr. Crosby does not claim the credit for this condition of the city but as the presiding officer in city affairs, certainly the responsibilities, the success or failures are his charge.

Harmony has been one of the outstanding features of Mr. Crosby's administration. Even in the times of financial stress the country over, or the world over, Poyune has experienced a period of growth, contentment, hopefulness; and all her problems of caring for the unfortunate well taken care of.

The major part of this condition is due to Mr. Crosby's suggestions both as a mayor and as a public spirited citizen. The citizens of Poyune would be fortunate in securing his services for another term.

Members of the senior class of the Poyune High School were guests of the Rotary Club of that place at last week's luncheon, with 37 class members of class '32. If the class members caught one sense of the Rotary spirit, aside from the compliment the invitation carried, both club and class will have been repaid for the thoughtful gesture.

CARL MARSHALL GUEST SPEAKER BEFORE MEDICAL CONVENTION, FRIDAY

Delegates to National Convention at New Orleans Last Week Visit Points of Interest Along Gulf Coast—Dr. C. M. Shipp Introduces Speaker.

A drive from Pass Christian to Biloxi and Gulf Hills, a visit to Pass Christian gardens, a luncheon at the Great Southern Hotel, Biloxi, and a tea at the Veterans' Hospital, Biloxi, featured the playday visit Friday to the Coast of 80 delegates from the American Medical Association and Auxiliary from the annual convention in session in New Orleans. About 200 members of the Harrison-Stone-Hancock County Medical Auxiliary and Society, met the visitors at the station in Pass Christian and accompanied them for the entire day's outing.

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. G. Rafferty, Pass Christian, the visitors were entertained in the garden where they were served refreshment and Dr. Rafferty presented each with a corsage of spring flowers. Visits were made to the Simmons and Hecht gardens and the Inn-by-the-Sea.

At Long Beach a stop was made at the Municipal Rose Garden where a committee presented everyone with roses. All visitors registered at the registration desk. Those on duty at the rose garden were: Mesdames Robert Young, Fred Skellie, John Campbell, S. E. Crane, Robert Strong, C. E. Buckles, Chas. McDaris, George Alexander, W. A. Davis, H. H. Jones, Misses Ruth Scott, Kathleen Hays, Mayor and Mrs. H. A. Genung, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Boggs, Prof. and Mrs. R. P. White and Gaston Jones.

The luncheon was served at the Great Southern Hotel, Biloxi, Coast flowers centered the tables. Mrs. Daniel J. Williams, past president of the Southern Medical Association Auxiliary, past president of the Mississippi State and Tri-County auxiliaries, presided as toast mistress. Prominent among the visitors were: Mrs. Walter Jackson Freeman of Philadelphia, Pa., incoming president of the American Medical Auxiliary; and Mrs. Charles Oates of Little Rock, president of the Southern Medical Auxiliary. The third honor guest, Mrs. A. B. McGlothlin of St. Joseph, Mo., outgoing president of the American Medical Association Auxiliary, was unable to reach the Coast until Saturday. The three ladies are houseguests for several days of Mrs. Daniel J. Williams at Long Beach.

Carl Marshall Guest-Speaker.

At the luncheon Mayor Jos. W. Milner of Biloxi, gave the welcome address. E. J. Adam, Sr., Pass Christian president of the board of supervisors, gave the welcome on the part of Harrison County, speaking of the health department work of the county. Dr. C. M. Shipp, Bay St. Louis, president of the Harrison-Stone-Hancock Counties Medical Society, introduced by Mrs. Williams, who in turn introduced Carl Marshall, Bay St. Louis, former state senator, who was the speaker of the occasion.

Mr. Marshall was not only the chief speaker at the banquet but was the guest of honor. For an hour or more he thrilled his hearers and in no way denied the deservedly flattering introduction given him by Dr. Shipp.

His address was replete with wit, repartee and oratory. It was said by the delegates to be the finest address of the several they had heard on the various occasions since they were South in this particular convention and his address would ever stand out as one feature to be pleasantly remembered.

In closing Senator Marshall paid tribute to the ladies, well worthy of the subject and true to the form of the elegant and polished gentleman whose cultural and academic attainments are well known.

Drive to Gulf Hills.

After the drive over the bridge to Ocean Springs and Gulf Hills, the tour returned to the Veterans' Hospital, Biloxi, where the Medical Auxiliary entertained at tea. The nurses' hut, scene of the tea, was decorated for the afternoon with a profusion of spring flowers from the hospital gardens. Mrs. Geo. Melvin, president of the auxiliary, as official hostess, assisted by almost the entire membership of the auxiliary, greeted the visitors. The tea table was laid with lace cloth, silver service and flowers. Mrs. C. G. Beckett presided at the tea urn and Mrs. E. C. Parker at the coffee urn. About 100 were present for the tea. The party continued for New Orleans at 6:15 o'clock.

EXPERIENCE.

He took his sweetie to the show.
It chanced to be a thriller.
It stirred her appetite and so
He dined with her to fill her.

Her weight was only ninety-three,
Her height abbreviated.
She was not hungry, no sirree,
With looks demure, she stated.

He handed her the bill-of-fare
Without the least misgiving,
Full sure the angel smiling there,
On love was chiefly living.

She had a relish, bowl of soup,
Two kinds of meat and salad,
Enough of green things for a troop,
Three drinks, desserts that tallied.

She never left a single crumb.
She ate the lemon peeling.
Her lover, disillusioned, dumb,
Although the fact concealing.

Received the check without a word
And paid it every penny,
The last of him she ever heard—
He still remembers Linnie.

His hair is touched with streaks of gray.
He has a wife and baby.
He's studied women since that day.
He knows them better, maybe.

He's learned the lesson down the years
That sizes are deceiving,
That most petite-appearing dears
Can stuff beyond believing.

The idle fancies of his youth
That pictured girls as fairies
Have given place to sterner truth
That comes to man who marries.

He still adores the siren sex
As pieces of perfection.<

BAY MUNICIPAL BAND HEADS PASS CHRISTIAN QUEST PARADE FOR BEER

Classic City of Pass Christian Scene of Demonstration for Return of Pre-Prohibition Beverage—Five Thousand Assemble

The first public demonstration for the return of beer was staged Saturday night at the home of former Lt. Governor Bidwell Adam, Pass Christian, also the dwelling place of the effete, when citizens of that place paraded through the business section of the city in the first beer parade to be held in this section.

Amid the applause of more than 5,000 people, James J. Farrell, veteran citizen and merchant of Pass Christian rode at the head of the parade as grand marshal and general leader in the demonstration. Following Mr. Farrell, was the Bay St. Louis brass band and five floats depicting various phases of the subject of the parade, "Bring Back Prosperity with Beer." The floats were titled "The Death of Prohibition, The Return of King Beer, Prosperity, Fighting for Liberty and Summer-time." Bay St. Louis' Municipal Band made a splendid showing and received much applause along the route. The men in uniform presented a splendid appearance and their music was of the best. It was not only an advertisement for Bay St. Louis but the showing was to general advantage.

Also in the parade were a number of commercial trucks and automobiles and an ancient horse and carriage, reminiscent of days prior to prohibition in Mississippi, which was entered by Mrs. J. D. Tschopik.

The parade which formed at the City barn on Second street, traveled West to Henderson avenue, then along the beach boulevard to Seal avenue, along Second street to Market street, and along the beach boulevard to the municipal pavilion, where it disbanded.

"Prohibition" was removed from the float following the parade, and burned in effigy before a large number of spectators.

A street dance which attracted hundreds of people was held in East Beach between Davis avenue and Fleitas avenue, and thousands of sandwiches and drinks were served.

The floats in the parade showed much originality in decoration and arrangement and represented a great amount of work by the committee in charge of decoration: James Farrell, Joseph Dennis, N. B. Corley, Frank Witman, Jr., Robert Allen and Cary Spence.

Festivities continued until shortly after midnight. A feature of the event was the absence of disorder of any kind, it was announced by officers. It was said that visitors to the parade included persons from many sections of south Mississippi.

BAKERS IN MEET URGED TO ADVERTISE MORE FOR BETTER AND MORE TRADE

J. L. Greer of Knoxville, Tenn., Chosen Head of Southern Bakers' Association In Annual Convention At Biloxi This Week.

Closing the 18th annual convention the Southern Bakers' Association at Biloxi Tuesday elected John L. Greer, of Knoxville, Tenn., as president to succeed G. A. Mattingly, Hattiesburg, Miss., but deferred selection of the next convention city until later in the year. Hollywood, Fla., put in a bid for the next convention.

Other officers elected today were: L. M. Collins, Atlanta, vice-president; J. B. Everidge, Columbus, Ga., treasurer; Ray Smith of Mobile, Ala., A. Wambasans of Biloxi and H. P. Erskine, Chattanooga, directors for two years, and F. M. Grout, Memphis, and J. R. Henderson, Atlanta, directors for one year.

In an address before the convention today, Gordon Smith, Mobile, urged the bakers to keep up and if possible increase their advertising campaigns to maintain business volume.

It was further pointed out that every other branch of business advertised extensively thus creating a demand for goods and shutting out the outside invasion, for, it was said, home people will intuitively buy a home product properly advertised rather than buy from outsiders. It was also the consensus of opinion that newspaper advertising was among the best mediums; that the newspaper went into the homes and was read by the family, especially the heads that do the buying for the table.

Emphasizing the need of co-operation with the local newspaper, Mr. Smith said: "The way to sell bread is to continue advertising to the limit and cut other expenses according to the volume of business done."

Minister—I hope, my boy, you are carrying away from college something worth while.

Senior—Yes, sir, the prettiest co-ed in the place.

NATIONAL BANKS' UNCLAIMED CASH MAY HELP BUDGET

Senate Group Approves Bill To Turn Funds Into Federal Treasury.

The government may be helped to balance the budget with unclaimed money deposited in national banks.

The Senate banking committee Tuesday at Washington approved a bill by Senator Burton K. Wheeler (Democrat, Montana) to turn over to the government funds which have laid dormant and unclaimed in federal banks for 20 years or more.

There is no current estimate of the total of such funds, but in 1921 they were $29,000,000.

Heirs and claimants would have five years in which to establish their rights to the funds after they were turned into the federal treasury.

Ten Rules on How to Kill A Church

1. Don't attend the meetings.
2. If you do go, go late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you don't go at all.
4. If you do attend the services find fault with the members and officials.
5. Never accept an office or a place to serve, as it is easier to criticize than to do things.
6. Be insulted if you are not appointed on a committee. But if you are appointed, do not attend the committee meetings.
7. If you are asked by the president to offer suggestions on missionary matters, tell her you have nothing to say, but after the meeting tell everyone how things should be done.
8. Do nothing more than is absolutely obligatory, but when "the faithful few" use their time and talent and means to help the society along howl that the church is run by a clique.
9. Never pay your missionary obligations promptly, or better still, withhold your financial support.
10. Don't bother about getting new members. Let the president do it.—Selected.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

MAY FESTIVAL A COLORFUL DISPLAY OF PAGEANTRY.

Gay Riot of Colors Rival Blossoms of May

The annual Festival held Sunday, May 15, at the S. J. A. gym was one of the loveliest entertainments of the year. The season lends itself so thoroughly to a floral display and the gardens of the Gulf Coast are a mass of lovely blossoms. Many of the gardens however had been stripped by generous friends who brought flowers to contribute toward a fitting background for the May Queen. The stage represented a rustic scene, and the throne, which was on a dais in the middle of the floor was banked with lilies and ferns. The chairs for the maids were grouped in a semi-circle around the throne, and back of these were also huge baskets of lilies, ferns, and gay colored spring flowers.

The queen and her court entered from the aisle preceded by the flower girls who were dressed in soft pastel shades and carried tiny old-fashioned bouquets. Then followed the maids in light fluffy tulle, delicate lace, or soft satin, representing most of the hues of the rainbow. The maid of honor, Miss Doris Houser, immediately preceded the queen, Miss Effie Graham Power, who wore a beautiful white dress and silver sandals. On her head was a crown of delicate and intricate woven flowers. A long train of pale blue satin was held by two little pages, in white satin trimmed with silver, who wore their plumed hats as if to the manner born.

The court was then welcomed by a song by the 7th and 8th grades. This was followed by several charming dances by Miss Peo Harding in glittering costumes. Next there was a Maypole dance by the 3rd and 4th grades. It was most effective—the little girls in varied-colored dresses, wove in and out plating the ribbons on the maypole, and in spite of the many intricate steps, smoothly unraveled it much to the delight of the audience.

Next, a recitation by Genie Harper, and a song and dance by Ruth Ward, deserved much praise.

After a final song by the 3rd and 4th, 5th, and 6th grades, the court, to the accompaniment of a march by the Harding Band, wended its way through the Gym. The march ended in a dance in which the members of the court participated.

We wish to thank the ladies of the P. T. A. for successfully sponsoring this affair. To them we extend our sincere thanks. We are also deeply grateful to Mrs. Harding and the Harding Band for its many delightful numbers, and to Miss Mary Perkins who had charge of the maids and the decoration of the stage.

To Mr. Harry Stuart Saucier, of Bay St. Louis, now residing at McComb for the donation of a liberal supply of hats, used effectively for entertainment, many thanks and a vote of appreciation.

BAZAAR FEATURE OF MAY FESTIVAL.

From four o'clock Sunday afternoon until the beginning of the May festival late in the evening, the yard of S. J. A. was the scene of much activity. This fair was one of the features of the May festival. Many booths sponsored by the P. T. A. were scattered about the yard. The boys of S. S. C. were in charge of two interesting booths at which games were played. The sandwich table, always one of the most popular was in charge of Mr. Morrow and Mr. Dollack.

The fair was a great success and we wish to congratulate and thank the ladies of the P. T. A. We also wish to thank those who in any way helped to bring the affair to such a happy close. The gym debt was decreased by a little more than $250.

SODALITY.

Joint Crowning of Coast Sodalities To Take Place at Pass Christian

Sunday, May 22 is the day set by the Gulf Coast Union of Children of Mary for the joint crowning of "Our Queen of May." The ceremony which was held here at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Woods last year, and which was most beautiful and impressive, is to take place this year at Pass Christian.

The Gulfport Sodality received the honor of having the young lady who is to crown "Our Blessed Mother" chosen from its unit. A representative from St. Stanislaus will read the Act of Consecration and of the remaining five Sodalities will have a maid in the ceremony of the crowning.

CATHERINE SCAFIDE CHOSEN TO REPRESENT S. J. A. IN JOINT CROWNING.

The weekly Sodality meeting which took place last Thursday had as its special aim the choosing of a candidate to represent S. J. A. in the joint crowning ceremony of the Coast Sodalities which is to take place at Pass Christian next Sunday. Vincennes Favalaro, Catherine Scafide, Louise Carrere, Elise Lizana and Alice Camors received the greatest number of the votes which were cast in the first ballot.

Catherine Scafide received a great majority of the votes cast in the second balloting and will be S. J. A.'s representation in the crowning next Sunday.

SYMPATHY.

The High School girls of S. J. A. and the Junior Class in particular wish to assure Catherine and Frances and the whole Scafide family of their prayers and heartfelt sympathy in the great loss which they have just sustained through the death of their beloved father.

L. & N. R. R. Announces Excursion Rates From Chicago to Gulf Coast

J. K. Ridgely, general passenger agent L. & N. R. R. announces that on May 27th and 28th and for all trains leaving Chicago prior to 1:00 A. M. May 29th, 1932, the C. & I. L. & N. Railroad, will sell round trip excursion tickets from Chicago to Mississippi Gulf Coast stations (Pascagoula to Bay St. Louis inclusive) on the following basis:

"We hope to be able to develop some business for the Gulf Coast on this excursion," Mr. Ridgely writes The Echo.

WHY ALL THIS?

Why the—? And what for?

Does every legislative session spend so much time with— Fred Sulich of the Jackson Daily News, and—

Tom Hederman of the Jackson Clarion-Ledger?

Both of these editors—on the ground—and KNOWING—are trying to tell the people what is happening in their papers.

They—both of them—give their ideas on various viewpoints.

They—why?—One—or both—of these editors should be brought into long controversies in the Legislature is past our understanding, when various and sundry legislators should be attending to other pre-eminent matters.

The doings of the Legislature are public property, and the newspapers are the only means by which the public can keep informed as to what their representatives are doing. Some rumors or biased reports by the press have been heard, but when sifted down it was found that the press reports were as near correct as could be under the circumstances.

Both of these editors are outstanding in the state as journalists, but at variance in ideas at times, editorially.

Neither of these gentlemen are members of the Legislature.

Why, gentlemen of the Legislature, spend so much time in investigating what they say in honest newspaper reports of legislative acts or in their editorial expressions? That's their right, and is due the public.

And—if they told all they knew, some folks would almost—in their graves!!—Brookhaven Leader.

Crushing Report

First Chorine (quarrelling in dressing room)—Not only that, but you get uglier every day.

Second Ditto—Another thing that I can do and you can't.

Steve Hamas, who knocked out Tommy Loughran, in the second round of an earlier meeting, won the decision from the former light heavyweight in their ten-round bout at Philadelphia last week.

The Quaker City fans, loyal to Tommy, greeted the decision with boos and hisses and the former light heavyweight champion seemed to be greatly surprised at the decision himself.

Recent Davis Cup competition includes the German victory over India at Berlin, the Austrian triumph over Czechoslovakia, the Japanese defeat of the Greek team and the victory of Monaco over Norway.

The match between Italy and Egypt was postponed but later resulted in an Italian triumph. Of these all were first-round matches in the European zone and the only surprise was Austria's victory over Czechoslovakia, represented by the same team that reached the zone finals against England last year.

Japan's victory over Greece was a second-round match but the other nations have their second contest to play.

In South America, Brazil is expected to get the zone title by default, as Chile and Paraguay are not likely to contest the title. This makes it possible that Brazil will play the United States at Washington in a few weeks, with the winner to play the European zone winner for the right to challenge France for the cup that it has held for five years.

A rather scrambled condition prevails this season in the ranks of three-year-old racers, because of the fact that many contenders are missing some of the important races. Burgoon King, winner of the Kentucky Derby, for example, is not eligible for the Belmont, which is to be run next month, nor is Top Flight, stand-out champion of last year.

In the same way, Mad Pursuit, one of last year's good two-year-olds, was not eligible for the Derby, and Burning Blaze was kept out of that classic by a training injury.

Incidentally E. R. Bradley, owner of Burgoon King, made history by winning the Derby for the third time. He won in 1921 with Behave Yourself and in 1926 with Bubbling Over.

COMMENT ON SPORTS @ SHERIDAN

East Rules American West Rules National Betting Odds Change

Boxing Notes Davis up Play 3-Year-Old Racers.

At the end of the first week's play in the geographical strife, one finds that Washington, New York and Philadelphia managed to win ten of their thirteen games with the Western invaders but the pace was too much for the Boston Red Sox, who dropped four of their first five games to their Western opponents.

This gave the Eastern clubs eleven games won to seven lost.

As a result of the week's play, Philadelphia advanced into fifth place and New York moved from fourth to second. Cleveland dropped from second to fourth, St. Louis slipped a notch and Cleveland, Chicago and Boston held their places. Of course, this standing may be changed by the time this is read but it reflects the first week of play in the Western attack on Eastern strongholds.

A recapitulation of the first week's fighting gave the Western clubs 12 victories to nine defeats. The Cubs and Reds were the bulk of the Western defense, losing only two of their twelve games. The Cardinals took two out of six and the Pirates lost the three games played during the first week. For the invaders, New York and Philadelphia won three while losing two each. Brooklyn took two and lost four, while the Braves were able to win only one of their five starts.

Recent playing has been reflected in new betting odds which makes the Chicago Cubs and Washington Senators the favorites to win the pennants in their respective leagues. Pre-season dope favored the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics, but these teams have failed to hit the stride expected although each has given indications of better form to come. Regardless of the betting quotations, it is too early to rule out the pennant winners of last year.

The boys are beginning to talk up the bout between Schmeling and Sharkey, now scheduled for June 21, with the fighters giving out interviews on the prospects. Manager Jacobs says that Schmeling's recent exhibition tour was a wonderful success and the champion is sure the public will see a great scrap if Sharkey sticks to his intention to fight it out punch for punch.

Steve Hamas, who knocked out Tommy Loughran, in the second round of an earlier meeting, won the decision from the former light heavyweight in their ten-round bout at Philadelphia last week.

The Quaker City fans, loyal to Tommy, greeted the decision with boos and hisses and the former light heavyweight champion seemed to be greatly surprised at the decision himself.

PRESSURE FOR ENACTMENT OF KIDNAPING LAW URGED BY CONGRESS

Representative Hall Tells of Representative of Press Who Has Fallen From Grace—Explains Times-Picayune Correspondent Charge About Son.

By Representative Robert S. Hall.

CAPITOL HILL, May 16.—The discovery of the body of the Lindbergh baby, the climax to one of the most shocking crimes in the history of the country, has revived in congress pressure for enactment of a Federal kidnaping law. Measures proposing such a statute were introduced in both Houses shortly after the abduction of the child, but they have been held in abeyance pending the outcome of the nationwide search for the baby, as it was feared that the passage of a drastic kidnaping law might cause the abductors to kill the little fellow in an endeavor to cover up all trace of the crime. Representative Cochran of Missouri, author of a bill making the transportation of abducted persons across State lines a capital offense, anticipates early approval of the measure by the House Judiciary committee as well as its sanction by the House.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

As adjournment draws nearer, agitation for Federal aid for the unemployed becomes more pronounced. As a matter of fact, it now looks as if the administration might okay a Federal-relief plan. President Hoover and congressional leaders of both parties have been considering a compromise plan for making available through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation about $250,000,000 to states and cities that may need financial assistance. The corporation would either underwrite State bonds or make direct loans to States which are not in a position temporarily to sell securities in the market. It is also proposed to authorize the corporation to make loans for income producing enterprises which would tend to boost employment. The capital of the corporation would be increased from $2,000,000,000 to $3,000,000,000 for taking care of the additional loans.

THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

Although the House voted, 178 to 166, to override the President's veto of the 1932 revenue bill, it was not enough, as a two-thirds vote was required. In his veto message the President asserted that adequate tariff protection was never more essential to the welfare of the American people than at present, owing to the sharp decline in commodity prices throughout the world that are considerably greater than in the United States. He also objected to the provision relieving him of his authority to regulate tariff duties through the flexible provisions of the present law. He feared reciprocal trade agreements would involve this country in a trade war with foreign nations.

"GENTLEMEN OF THE PRESS."

The courts compel citizens to swear to tell the "whole truth and nothing but the truth." The practice of telling the whole truth is practiced among all gentlemen and we have come to know newspaper reporters as "gentlemen of the Press." I wish to call attention to one that has fallen from grace and to denounce the practice of his telling only part of the truth in order to get a "story."

First National Bank, Chicago

Melvin A. Traylor

The function of a bank is, after all, a quasi-public one, and the banker who has no regard for the ultimate prosperity of his customers and his community will be very quickly condemned by the common sense of the latter, and will ultimately destroy not merely his own reputation but also bring about the downfall of his community.

In other words, the prosperity of a bank is founded upon the prosperity of the community and country in which it is situated.

Banker in Strategic Position.
The banker has always held a strategic position in the business world, and obviously the first requisite necessary is that the banker shall be honest. I do not mean with "honest" merely that he should be honest to the extent that he would not embezzle funds or swindle his customers and clients. The honesty to which I refer must be of a much higher and greater type.

He must be willing to forego momentary advantages because in the long run the specific action may bring harm to his customers or possibly to business generally.

Sentiment in Business

Sentiment in business? Yes, there is nothing else. What is it that prompts agitation for reforms in every avenue of life? Why is it we are interested in better agriculture, better roads, better schools, better community life? It is sentiment; it is affection; it is pride; it is sense of duty.

It is faith, confidence, hope, the intangible that forms the very warp and woof of modern business, and nowhere is so large a degree of this true as in banking, and in no sphere of banking to so great an extent as in the country bank.

Truly the work of the country banker touches the life of the community at every point, from the wedding chancel to the cemetery, and at no point does it touch so lightly as at that of cold-blooded business consideration. It is sentiment from the opening hour until the closing hour, and many hours when no banking can be done.

Mrs. Otto F. Briede, Beach Summer Resident, Dies at New Orleans Home

Mrs. Otto F. Briede, wife of the former New Orleans city treasurer and retired business man, died suddenly at her New Orleans home 1325 St. Mary street, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Briede spent Sunday afternoon on a drive through the city, visiting Audubon and City parks. At City park they spent some time visiting the horticultural hall. They returned home and had supper and shortly thereafter Mrs. Briede was stricken. Physicians were sent for but she was beyond professional aid.

Mrs. Briede, who was Miss Constance Despommer, married Mr. Briede 50 years ago at St. Alphonsus church and they were preparing to celebrate their golden anniversary. She is survived by her husband, one son, Otto F. Briede, Jr., who succeeded to his father's wagon manufacturing business, two sisters, Marie Platz and Miss Myrtle Despommer, both former summer residents of Bay St. Louis, occupying the former Carroll "Bay View" home, and two grandchildren of the deceased son, Frank Briede.

Mrs. Briede devoted much of her time to charitable work. She took a great interest in and was a generous contributor to the New Orleans Hospital for Women and Children, and was a charter member of the New Orleans Women's Club.

She was well known in Waveland and as well as Bay St. Louis residents, for years she and her husband owned of Seaside Cottage on the Waveland beach front, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. Briede had been ailing from time to time and even though she had not been well her death was quite sudden and unexpected. Both husband and son have the sympathy of wide circle of friends, both in New Orleans and along this section of the gulf coast.

MOTHER MISSISSIPPI.

Girdled round with grandeur,
Crowned with singing stars,
Rainbowed with a future
Not a shadow mars,

Mother Mississippi,
Proud and peerless state,
Here's a tribute to you,
Good and true and great.

May your sons and daughters,
Till the end of time,
Wreath your brow with laurels,
Frame your name with rhyme.

Love and serve and shield you,
Keep you good and great,
Mother Mississippi,
Proud and peerless state.

LOCAL FISHERMEN CHECK UP AND FIX THEIR TACKLE

Bay St. Louis Anglers Feel The Call of the Swimming Tribe.

Many residents of Hancock county will have plenty of time for fishing during the next few months of 1932, and already some of the champion fishermen of this community have felt the call to the rod and reel.

The spring days somehow put a "peculiar feeling in a fellow's bones," according to one of the fishermen here several days ago. He admitted that there was a peculiar fascination about the sport which he was not able to exactly explain and also at the same time admitted that he had already taken a look at his fishing tackle and given the whole outfit the "once over."

And he is not the only one who is longing to get a tug on his line. If reports are true, a number of these sportsmen hereabouts, have made examinations of their supply of fishing tackle and filled in the gaps with new purchases so that everything will be in readiness for the first opportunity that presents itself to spend a day catching the finny tribe.

And in this connection it may be interesting to these fellows to know that a new industry has sprung up following the demand which they create for bait.

The waters hereabouts have been clear and are alive with fish that are the enjoy of every fisherman. Among the many kinds of fish caught daily are green trout, perch, speckle trout, red fish, croakers and white trout.

Many good catches of flounders and soft shell crabs have been reported and each night observers will notice the shore lines are filled with those who with their torches are seeking one of the most delicious sea foods, soft shell crabs. Week-end parties of out of town people who come here for the sole purpose of catching soft shell crabs are becoming numerous.

There is no better fishing grounds than those around the Bay St. Louis-Waveland section.

More fishermen than ever are now taking up fly fishing and casting and each week-end we here the reports of those who are making exceptional catches.

You Couldn't Chisel On Lincoln.

Armed with a sculptor's chisel, Robert Campbell proceeded to make some minor alterations on the statue of Lincoln in Grant Park, Chicago. "Well, I didn't have nothing against Lincoln," Campbell explained to a policeman, "I didn't have anything else to do."

Municipal Judge Green was of the opinion, however, that the statue is fairly good as it now stands. He recommended that Campbell practice his art in the workhouse where other rocks can be chiseled.

Campbell lives at number 847 on LaSalle street, haunt of stock brokers, promoters and chiselers.

We Bet on the Shark.

It is said that sharks will not bite a swimmer who keeps his legs in motion. The difficulty is to keep kicking longer than the shark can keep waiting.

Get Back at Him

Mrs. Gray—And did you enjoy your camping trip, my dear?

Mrs. Young—Immensely. It was the first chance I had to complain of my husband's cooking.

The Printed WORD

The printed word reaches more people sooner than verbal or personal contacts. It has an approach that rivals that of the best salesman; it often gets in where real salesmen fear to tread. If your business seems to be slacking up try treating it the printed word way. You will be rewarded with results.

GULF COAST OIL CO. WINS IN TILT WITH COURT ON CHARGE

Dissolve State Injunction Prohibiting Operations of Filling Stations—Affects Bay St. Louis And Other Places.

Chancellor D. M. Russell, in a vacation decision at Gulfport sustained a plea of the defendant Gulf Coast Oil Company and dissolved an injunction issued against them on April 26 by fiat of Chief Justice Sidney Smith, of the state supreme court, which restrained the company from operating gasoline distribution stations on the coast until an excise tax controversy was settled.

The defendants based their plea on the grounds that a suit involving the same allegations had been filed previously in Pearl River county. The suit filed by representatives of the state attorney general's office claimed that the payment of excise tax had been evaded.

Chancellor Russell also quashed a writ of sequestration that had ordered the impounding of all gasoline at the company's stations at Bay St. Louis and Biloxi.

Defendants plea in the case here was confessed to by Herbert Nunnery, counsel representing Attorney General Greek L. Rice.

The Gulf Coast Oil Company is operated by Anthony Paciera of New Orleans, August Taconi of Bay St. Louis and Louis Largelliere, of Biloxi.

Mrs. Frank B. Pittman Selected President of Picayune P.-T. Ass'n.

Boggan, parliamentarian; Mrs. J. Q. Landrum, historian.

Mrs. Pittman, former Bay St. Louis resident, will fill the duties of her new position of honor and trust with efficiency and distinction, well-known for her training and executive ability.

Dr. Richard Cox, of Gulf Park, to Speak To Pass Graduates

Commencement exercises for the Pass Christian High School will be held in the auditorium of the school this Friday at 8 P. M. Dr. Richard Cox, head of Gulf Park college, will deliver the address to the graduating class, composed of Wallace Ford, valedictorian; William Rhyme, salutatorian; James Smith, George De Metz, James Dubuison, Katherine Dedeaux, Irma Telhard and Wilda Gavagine.

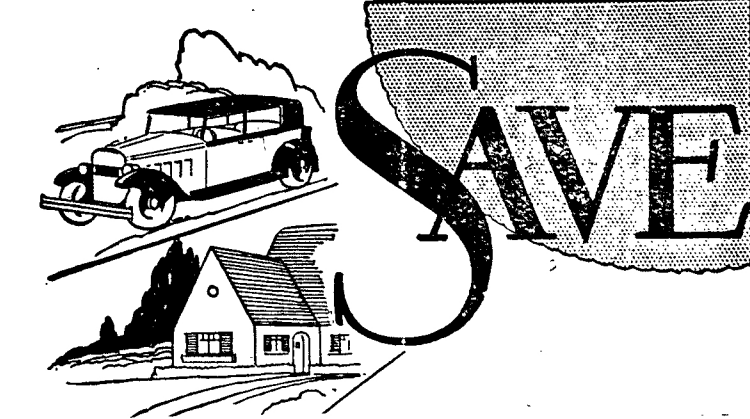

The annual concert by the school pupils was witnessed by a large attendance, when two operettas, "Pic Nick in Fairyland" and "Snow White" were presented.

The annual picnic of the school for many years a feature at the close of each session of this school, will be held Saturday.

SHE REDUCED 38 POUNDS THE SAFE WAY

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lazy and heavy," Mrs. Florence Loftus, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

FOR A PURPOSE

THERE are so many things for which you can save if you feel that you must save for a purpose other than independence in the future; a home, an automobile, travel, education, new furniture, clothes, in fact saving will get you all the things that make life worth living. When you have a goal to save for it makes it worth saving. Select your pet ambition and save now for its realization.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

(For The Sea Coast Echo)

The most sinned against of all foods is the pie. If all leathery, soggy or underdone pies were to pass from view, the idea of pie being indigestible would vanish with them. Use a reliable recipe for your pastry, even then the pie may be a sorry one, as the success of the pie depends on the baking. A pastry shell should be baked at 500 degrees for 12 minutes. In a double crust pie, as cherry pie, the oven should be 450 degrees and remain in the oven 40 minutes, the last ten minutes reduce heat to 400 degrees.

Strawberry Pie

1 quart strawberries, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup water, 3 tablespoons cornstarch dissolved in 1-3 cup of water. Remove stems and wash strawberries. Take 1 cup strawberries with 1 cup cold water and 1 cup sugar. Allow to boil 20 minutes. Strain through a wire sieve, crushing the berries with a spoon. Throw away the pulp and return liquid to the pot. Add the cornstarch which has been dissolved to this. Stir constantly, allow to cook to a thick syrup. Cut remaining strawberries into halves and pour boiling syrup over them. Chill. On a baked pastry shell spread whipped cream. On top of whipped cream place the strawberries and heavy syrup.

Blackberry Pie

3 tablespoons flour, 1 qt. blackberries, 1 cup sugar, dots of butter 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Prepare berries. Add sifted dry ingredients to berries. Mix well and turn into a pie pan lined with pastry. Sprinkle with flour and dot with butter. Sprinkle lemon juice over mixture. Cover with a top crust. Bake.

Cherry Pie

2 cups pitted cherries, 1-3 cup cherry juice, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, salt, 2 tablespoons butter. To the cherries and juice add sugar, flour and salt. Pour into pie plate lined with pastry. Dot with butter. Cover with a top crust and bake.

BILIOUS

"I have used Black-Draught... and have not found anything that could take its place. I take Black-Draught for biliousness. When I get bilious, I have a nervous headache and a nervous, trembling feeling that unfits me for my work. After I take a few doses of Black-Draught, I get all right. When I begin to get bilious, I feel tired and run-down, and then the headache and trembling. But Black-Draught relieves all this."—A. O. Hendrie, Homerville, Ga.

presented an acrobatic dance in artistic form and remarkable for one so tender in years.

Recitation by Gene Harper, at the gate with St. Peter, was cleverly delivered.

These numbers added to the program of the evening and proved pleasing to the public that had gathered in response to the lure of the annual May festival and stage entertainment. This is an annual event and is looked for each year, with the anticipation of knowing who will be queen of May next year. Passing Away of Evariste Fayard, Native Of Bay St. Louis

Evariste Fayard, beloved father of Mrs. Louise Boudin, and stepfather of George L. Suzeneau, both residents of Bay St. Louis, died at his home in this city Wednesday forenoon at 11:30 o'clock, following a brief illness.

He was a native of Bay St. Louis and had resided here all of his life, having reached a ripe old age and enjoying the fruits of a well-spent life and in the declining years living at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Boudin. For many years Mr. Fayard was connected with the L. & N. and was also considered one of their most valued men.

The funeral took place Thursday evening of this week, with interment at Cedar Rest cemetery. Well known and universally esteemed, the news of his death was received with much sorrow and many called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Boudin, Third street, from which domicile the funeral took place.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Korndorfer and family motored over from Natchez accompanied by their daughter, Saturday and spent a few days very pleasantly at their summer villa on the beach front, covering the long trip in slightly over four hours. They are anticipating the time when they will return for the summer season, which time of return is not far distant.

The Final Test

"I thought you said this bathing suit was in fast colors," said the customer, indignantly. "Why, every confounded stripe in it has come off on my back."

Ah, but wait," said the shopman, suavely, "wait until you try to get them off your back—then you'll see."

OF SOCIAL INTEREST (By Our Society Editor)

MRS. J. N. STEWART ENTERTAINS NEW ORLEANS GUESTS.

Mrs. John N. Stewart was hostess Saturday afternoon at one of the prettiest luncheons of the early summer, entertaining at her villa on the Bay St. Louis South Boulevard, and in honor of Mrs. James Dinkins, a great favorite in social circles in New Orleans. The guests motored in various groups to the Gulf Coast returning to New Orleans in the late evening.

The luncheon table was lovely with clusters of bright colored blossoms and fern. Mrs. Stewart's guests included Captain and Mrs. Dinkins, Mrs. Arthur Nolte, Mrs. Bessie Behan Lewis, Mrs. George W. Boucher, Mrs. Frederick W. Parham, Mrs. Dalm O'Brien, Mrs. Joseph C. Morris, Mrs. Joseph B. West and others.

MRS. LILLY LEONHARD ENTERTAINED AT GREENVILLE.

From the Society Column of the Greenville (Miss.) Daily Democrat-Times, we copy the following wherein Mrs. Leonhard, of Bay St. Louis, was entertained following her visit to Jackson where she officiated at the O. E. S. school of instruction. The Greenville paper says:

"Mrs. Lilly Leonhard, of Bay St. Louis, has been the guest of Greenville friends for the O. E. S. Reception for Mrs. Goldstein Wednesday at her home honoring the Grand Officers and visiting ladies."

Another item from the same press: "Mrs. Goldstein entertained as her house guests during the anniversary celebration of E. N. Thomas' Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Inez Neels and her daughter, Miss Mary Neels, of Jackson; Mrs. Tom Q. Ellis, Jackson; Mrs. Lulu Horne, Sandersville; Mrs. Nanie Allen, Kosciusko; Mrs. Sam Hyman, Shelby, and Mesdames Herman Schear and J. E. Dattel, Rosedale, and Mrs. W. T. Helms, Pontotoc."

MRS. GOLDSTEIN'S PARTY AT GREENVILLE.

The Greenville Democrat-Times gives an account of Mrs. Goldstein's party reception in which she honored officers of O. E. S. and Mrs. Gorman, W. M., which Mrs. Leonhard, of Bay St. Louis attended. The account follows:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goldstein was the scene of a beautiful buffet luncheon Wednesday at 12:30, when Mrs. Goldstein, who was recently elected Associate Grand Conductress of the Eastern Star of Mississippi, entertained in honor of the Grand Officers and visiting ladies of ten districts, and honoring Mrs. Gorman, Worthy Matron of E. N. Thomas Chapter. Miss Mary Inez Noel of Jackson, who was Mrs. Goldstein's special page at the Grand Chapter in Meridian, presided at the register. The receiving party included the Grand Officers and Mrs. Gorman Mrs. Carolyn Sponenberger, of Arkansas City, Grand Associate Matron of Arkansas; Mrs. Hill, of Jackson, and Dr. Pogue, of Scott; Mrs. Rankin, of Gulfport; Mrs. Simmons, of Meridian.

Miss Virginia Coleson and Miss Blanche Topol served refreshing punch in the sun parlor. The home was elaborately decorated for the occasion with the season's loveliest flowers. Gift flowers came from everywhere and it seemed as if some magic wand had touched the home and converted it into dreamland. Beautiful gladiolas sent by Mrs. Lilly Leonhard, of Bay St. Louis, were arranged in floor baskets and with a profusion of gorgeous roses and other cut flowers created a lovely background for the receiving party.

The dining room was a wondrous picture with a table in a rich lace and linen cover. A silver bowl filled with pink roses and blue larkspur was the center ornament and at each end were silver candelsticks holding green tapers. Large silver trays were filled with lovely luncheon and ribbon sandwiches, while bon bon dishes held delicious candies.

Mrs. Max Hyman, Mrs. Harry Stein, Mrs. W. H. Cadenhead, Mrs. Irving Topol, Mrs. Sam Heyman, of Shelby, Mrs. J. E. Dattel and Mrs. Herman Schear, of Rosedale, assisted the officers of the chapter in serving the delicious lunch. (About 150 guests enjoyed this beautiful affair.)

MR. AND MRS. AUGUST CARRERE LEAVE FOR CHICAGO HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. August Carrere, of Chicago, bridal couple who have been spending a month South on their bridal trip visiting friends and relatives in New Orleans and as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. Carrere, on the fashionable Waveland beach drive, left here for New Orleans Monday morning intending to spend a few days in the Crescent City before leaving for their home in the mid-west metropolis.

While here both Mr. and Mrs. Carrere were extensively entertained, and a number of day parties for Mrs. Carrere, one constant whirl of entertainment, feted and honored on every side. A most engaging couple, with unforgettable personality, their departure will be felt and their leaving generally regretted by a wide circle of friends both here and in New Orleans.

The party with its charming hostess, was a most delightful one and not soon to be forgotten.

MRS. J. R. SCHARFF ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. J. R. Scharff has issued invitations to a number of friends for bridge at her home in Carroll avenue. Mrs. Scharff is a charming hostess and a most pleasurable afternoon will mark the occasion.

Mrs. J. W. Kidd, residing in Carroll avenue, last week entertained a number of friends at a two-table bridge party, to which close friends were invited. The trophies were worthy of striving for and delectable refreshment served later in the afternoon, the guests thoroughly enjoying the hospitality of this charming hostess.

In Doubt

Lawyer (handing client $100)—Here is the balance of your award of $500, after deducting my fee. Why do you frown? Aren't you satisfied? —I was just wondering who got hit by the car, you or I?

Might Throw It Up To Her

"Then you wouldn't let him propose?"
"Not last night."
"Why not?"
"We were at bridge."
"Hasn't he won you?"
"Yes, but I didn't want it said he won me at a bridge party."
